

Prof. Jurgita Malinauskaite

Professor in Law, Brunel University, London

Jurgita Malinauskaite is a professor of law at Brunel Law School (BLS), Brunel University London (BUL). She is also a Divisional Lead for Private and Commercial Law and regularly deputises for the Head of Department. Previously, Prof. Malinauskaite was the Athena Swan Lead for BLS, successfully leading the law department to achieve an Athena Swan Bronze Award in recognition of its commitment to gender equality, becoming the first non-STEMM BUL department to receive this award. Prof. Malinauskaite is also the Aurora champion and a role model for women. She regularly organises and chairs Brunel's Women in Leadership sessions. Together with the University's equality and diversity team Prof. Malinauskaite runs annual promotional workshops for women, empowering them to advance in their careers. She coaches Action Learning Sets (ALS) and Prof. Malinauskaite was also the Associate Dean for Equality and Diversity, at the College of Business, Arts and Social Sciences. She has authored numerous journal articles as well as two monographs.

"There is a considerable worldwide talent pool of women in higher education, which are not utilising their full potential. Unlocking this potential is vital. Dedication to mentoring, coaching, and networking, inspiring conversations and sharing success stories enable positive change".